

IBM 0% Financing

From Celerity

...Restricted by Lack of IT budget?

In conjunction with IBM Global Financing, Celerity are offering clients 0% financing on deals up to £200,000 when purchasing IBM Hardware and new IBM Software Licences.

By deferring the payments over 12 months this financing promotion enables you to acquire IBM hardware and new software licences whilst spreading the cost over the following year.

Promotional Details:

- Available for all transactions up to £200,000
- Offer ends 31st December 2008
- 12 month contract equates to 4 quarterly payments
- All contracts are subject to credit approval. Terms & conditions apply.

Financing does not have to be simply about enabling an organisation to acquire IT without the upfront investment - with Celerity and IGF your entire IT infrastructure can become far more affordable, manageable, and more versatile.

Need to Finance more than £200,000?
